

Financial Women of San Francisco Committees (2020)

FUNDRAISING COMMITTEES

Corporate Sponsorship

The Corporate Sponsorship Committee cultivates corporate relationships who are the primary source of funds for the FWSF Scholarship Fund, and who also provide some support for the FWSF association. Service on the Corporate Sponsorship Committee expands your network with a range of national and Bay Area companies and gives you valuable fundraising experience.

Individual Fundraising

The Individual Fundraising committee works to raise a funds for the FWSF Scholarship Fund from individual donors. The committee provides the opportunity to organize events, solicit donors, and participate in building the strategy for growing the donor base and total donations.

Financial Woman of the Year

The Financial Woman of the Year Committee plans and executes our signature Financial Woman of the Year event. The gathering is held each fall to raise money for the FWSF Scholarship Fund and honor exemplary women in finance. It draws more than 700 attendees annually. As a member of the Financial Woman of the Year Committee, you may interact with several other committees, including Corporate Sponsorship, Scholarship, and Marketing Communications functions – as well as outside parties such the videographer, hotel, event planners and more.

TECHNOLOGY COMMITTEE

Technology

The Technology Committee is responsible for identifying, implementing, and maintaining systems that help the organization to be successful in an efficient and effective way. As a member of this team, you help identify and test new solutions to automate manual processes within the organization, function as a business systems administrator for systems as required, and enhance/leverage the functionality of tools to create operational and strategic efficiencies for the organization. The Committee also assists other Committees in analyzing the data available in Membee and other platforms in order to facilitate Board reporting and trend analysis. Participation on this team requires a proactive attitude, curious mind, and ability to act as a translator between the technology committee team and members of the organization at large. You will also have an opportunity to partner across committees in the organization to help identify needs and create efficiencies.

MARKETING COMMUNICATIONS COMMITTEES

The MarCom Committee focuses on internal and external FWSF communications and works to heighten awareness of FWSF, our members and our role as an essential source of insight and inspiration to financial women in the Bay Area. As a member of this team, you will help produce an e-newsletter that informs members and prospective members about relevant events and activities, introduces new members, and increases the value of FWSF membership. Team members will also develop the FWSF's communication strategy and produce a quarterly editorial calendar to connect strategy to action and events. You may also work (together with outside vendors) to develop and maintain the FWSF website and implement other methods of member communication. The committee also focuses on media relations, public relations and social media to heighten awareness of FWSF, our members and our role as an essential source of insight and inspiration to financial women in the Bay Area and beyond. As a member of this committee, you will work with FWSF's outside PR firm to develop media strategy throughout the year, and develop strategy/content for our social media channels.

MEMBERSHIP COMMITTEE

Membership & Member Engagement

The Membership Committee works to engage our members; expand our membership base; and serve the needs of our members. It welcomes new members; designs and executes membership drives; and plans membership engagement activities, as well as developing existing and new benefits and services for FWSF members. As a member of this committee, you will explore ways to increase interest and involvement in the organization and derive exceptional value from membership, driving member engagement, and ultimately membership retention. Service on the Membership Committee enables you to meet a broad range of current and prospective FWSF members; apply existing skill sets and interests or learn new ones; and provides the opportunity to engage members and future members.

DIVERSITY & INCLUSION

The FWSF Diversity & Inclusion Committee designs and implements our inclusion program to ensure that our membership, leadership, programs, and other activities reflect the rich diversity of the Bay Area financial community. The Diversity and Inclusion Committee works with all other teams across the FWSF to ensure that we look through the lens of diversity and inclusion in all that we do. The committee works on events, and works to measure our progress towards an FWSF that reflects the Bay Area. The committee meets monthly to develop strategy, assess progress and plan. In person attendance at committee meetings is highly encouraged.

PROGRAMS COMMITTEES

San Francisco

The San Francisco Programs Committee identifies, recruits and hosts speakers for our highly respected Industry Leadership, Professional Development and Lifestyle & Special Events Series in San Francisco. Industry Leadership programs showcase hot issues in financial services and speakers who are recognized leaders in their fields. Professional Development programs immerse our members in topics that can make or break a career and introduce attendees to experts on a range of subjects. Lifestyle & Special Events programs focus on our annual holiday party and other social and soft-skill events. Serving on the

San Francisco Programs Committee encourages big-picture thinking and puts you in touch with experts in financial services, business, government and civic affairs, as well as opportunities to mix and mingle, be creative, and enjoy the company of other FWSF members.

East Bay

Much like the San Francisco Committee, the East Bay Committee develops Industry Leadership, Professional Development and Lifestyle & Special Events programs for the East Bay arm of FWSF. The committee provides learning, leadership and networking opportunities convenient to members who work or live in the East Bay. It promotes FWSF to East Bay companies and prospective members, and encourages prospects to join FWSF. Serving on the East Bay Committee will tap both your big-picture and organizing skills.

SCHOLARSHIP COMMITTEES

Scholarship

FWSF's Scholarship Committee led by the VP of Scholarships and Mentorship and the Scholarship Co-Chairs coordinates our scholarship program and all related outreach to women pursuing careers in finance or related fields at colleges and universities across the greater Bay Area. The team works with Bay Area colleges and universities to encourage submissions, reviews applications, conducts first round interviews and provides recommendations for second (final) round interviews. Committee service gives you the privilege of meeting inspiring women and guiding them on their road to success.

Scholarship Mentoring

The FWSF Mentoring Committee led by the VP of Scholarships and Mentoring and two Mentorship Co-Chairs manages our scholarship mentoring program. The committee plans events that bring together our scholarship winners and our members, oversees mentor/protégé relationships, and seeks ways to improve the program. Committee service provides a unique opportunity to connect with aspiring young financial professions to women at the peak of their careers.

Join us!

If you are interested in stepping up your engagement with FWSF and want to hear more about how you can get involved on a committee, please email us at info@FinancialWomenSF.org or 415.586.8599.